

About Barry Entner

For more than twenty-five years, sculptor Barry Entner has been exploring the properties of glass in the pursuit of his unique vision. Using primarily tropical palette, Entner creates otherworldly forms, reflecting the relationship between kinetic and potential life. The elegant and vital movements inherent in his forms are the result of his innovative, vibrant designs. His work is shown in museums, public space and private collections throughout the world.

Barry Entner works with designers, galleries, Architects and collectors throughout the world to create unique sculptures, from pedestal pieces to site specific installations. His customers include the following clients, commissions, exhibitions and museums:

- Bill Clinton, President
- Paul Mitchell, Cosmetics
- Hillary Clinton, Secretary of State
- David Robinson, NBA
- Miccosukee Hotel Casino Miami, Florida
- Island View Resort Gulfport, Mississippi
- Hunt Corporation Headquarters Dallas, Texas
- Langham Place Hotel, Hong Kong
- Hale Koa Hotel Honolulu, Hawaii
- SOFA (International Exposition of Sculptural Objects and Function Art)
- International Exhibition of Glass Kanazawa, Japan
- International Exposition Frankfurt, Germany
- Art Expo New York, NY
- Art Glass Gallery, American Glass Exhibition Zurich, Switzerland
- Pelfair Museum of Art Savannah, Georgia
- Atlanta Botanical Gardens Atlanta, Georgia

Barry works personally with his clients from the earliest stages of design to the final completion of each unique sculpture.

The level of detail and care Barry puts into each of his sculptures firmly inserts him into the upper echelon of today's sculptural artists. In many cases, his pieces have grown in value since their original purchase and have become a centerpiece for both conversation and delight.